DISCOVERY

Stirling, Gateway to the Highlands.
Stirling is in the center of a very historic area of Scotland. Tour the city. Visit the site of the Battle of Bannockburn, and listen to the story of the Scots’ triumph in this 14th-century battle. Explore Stirling Castle, a majestic fortress.

Loch Lomond and the Trossachs.
Visit the town of Luss by Loch Lomond. Originally built for workers at the nearby slate quarries, Luss has a collection of quaint cottages built with local slate. Enjoy a scenic drive through Aberfoyle and Queen Elizabeth Forest Park in the heart of the Trossachs.

St Andrews.
Discover St Andrews, birthplace of golf. See St Andrews Cathedral and the ruins of a 12th-century castle with an interesting history. It has served as the home of the bishops of St Andrews, the administrative center of the Church of Scotland and a prison. Stop at the Old Course, where golf was first played 600 years ago.

Edinburgh and the Tattoo.
En route to Edinburgh, visit the Forth Bridge, the oldest multispan cantilever bridge. Once in the Scottish capital, admire the medieval architecture in the Old Town and the Georgian buildings in the New Town. Visit the Royal Mile and Edinburgh Castle. Attend the Royal Edinburgh Military Tattoo at the castle.

Scone Palace and the Famous Grouse Experience.
Visit Perth and Scone Palace, where Scottish kings were crowned until the 13th century. Continue to Glenturret Distillery in Crieff to enjoy The Famous Grouse Experience and a whisky tasting.

ENRICHMENT

Medieval Scotland.
Explore the rich history of Scotland during the Middle Ages. Learn about the country’s struggle for freedom, and hear the stories of Robert the Bruce and William Wallace, two heroes of that era.

The Stuarts and the Jacobite Rebellions.
Examine Scottish history from the time of Mary, Queen of Scots, through the Jacobite Rebellions.

Scotland Today.
Learn current events shaping Scottish life and culture.

Meet the People.
Join a discussion with local residents about life in Scotland today.
