The Ram Handler volunteer position is part of the Alumni Association and, as such, is a part of the Division of University Advancement.

WHAT IS A RAM HANDLER?
CAM the Ram has been a tradition at CSU for almost 70 years and embodies the spirit of CSU and its history as a land grant institution. The Ram Handler program exists to connect Rams of all ages to CSU, to each other, and to remind Rams of what makes CSU such a special place. Ram Handlers share in the responsibility of upholding the tradition of CAM the Ram and play an important role in the success of the program. The CAM the Ram and Ram Handler program is managed by the CSU Alumni Association. In addition, a team of experts from across campus have been assembled to ensure CAM receives proper care and that Ram Handlers are appropriately trained in animal handling.

AS A RAM HANDLER, YOU WILL...
- Embody and abide by the Principles of Community at CSU: inclusion, integrity, respect, service, and social justice.
- Create a safe and welcoming environment for all who interact with CAM the Ram.
- Create an excellent customer experience while serving as a student ambassador at events with and without CAM the Ram.
- Learn proper animal handling.
- Learn general information pertaining to the history, traditions, and current state of CSU, the Alumni Association, and CAM the Ram and become familiar with the Division of University Advancement in order to convey accurate information at all times.
- Assist in troubleshooting and problem solving any issues that may arise.
